Sharp Jazz lines, timeless technique and super-snappy style – Sophie’s ‘showgirl’ sophistication and elegance has elevated her as a highly respected and sought-after dancer, teacher & choreographer on the world stage!

Sydney-born Jazz superstar Sophie Holloway began dancing at the early age of 3, training under the legendary Bernadette Langshaw-Clark. After continuing her education majoring in Dance and Drama at Newtown High School of the Performing Arts, Sophie hit the Australian scene at just 16 as a commercial dancer and model, featuring in TV shows and commercials before unexpectedly landing a role in the ensemble for Baz Lurhmann’s film The Great Gatsby.

Chasing her ultimate dream, Sophie made her way to New York City in 2014 & secured a spot in the internationally renowned precision dance company The Radio City Rockettes.

Her 8 years with the company has included over 700 performances as well as The Tony Awards, Tonight Show with Jimmy Fallon, the annual Macy’s Thanksgiving Day Parade, The Today Show NBC and more!

Back home in Australia Sophie is one of the most sought after commercial performers in the industry performing for international icons like Katy Perry and Cher as well as a featured role in Opera Australia’s production of Salome choreographed by Kelley Abbey.

Sophie most recently worked on Baz Lurhmann’s film Elvis and Rebel Wilson’s feature film The Deb and was selected by The Squared Division as a resident dancer on Season 3 of The Masked Singer in Australia. Other commercial dance credits include The Voice, Australia’s Got Talent, Dancing With The Stars, The Aria Awards, Sydney World Pride, Dance Boss, The Dream Dance Company, The Wiggles and she is continually featured in various TVC’s nationally and internationally.

Her latest achievement is being invited to join the internationally renowned touring company Burn The Floor where Sophie has made her mark as a commercial Latin dancer and looks forward to the upcoming Australian Tour in 2024.

As well as performing on countless gigs with some of the world’s biggest stars, Sophie has rapidly become one of Australia’s most sought-after dance educators and emerging choreographers. Working closely with Mitchell Woodcock and Newground Collective as well as her work on Vogue Australia’s Fashion Night Out and Bonnie Lythgoe Productions.

She was recently appointed Choreographer for projects with music artist CXLOE as well as The Veronicas and was the Auditions Assistant for Opera Australia’s upcoming production of Sunset Boulevard.

Attention to detail, sophistication and her dynamic personality keep Sophie in high demand and employed nationwide. With a remarkable technical background, complimented by versatile exposure and training, Sophie has matured into a polished and sophisticated performer and emerging choreographer.

There is no denying that her vivacious presence is undoubtedly favoured in the industry as Sophie remains one of the most influential and highly respected artists across Australia and internationally.
