SYLLABUS & RULES

SECTIONS

NATIONAL CHARACTER

Based on folk dance from countries such as Russia, Poland and Hungary for example. Please enter in OPEN/ANY STYLE section.

NEO CLASSICAL

Based upon Classical Ballet technique, referring to the 20th-century style of classical ballet, exemplified by the works of George Balanchine. Examples of extending lines and positions, playing with speed and freedom of movement and incorporating new positions outside of the ballet vocabulary. Minimalist costume, usually a simple leotard to showcase the dancer's movement. Please enter in OPEN/ANY STYLE section.

OPEN/ANY STYLE

If a genre section is not provided, that dance can be performed in this section. Can also include if the dancer has a second dance of another genre.

PLEASE NOTE: You must dance in the correct genre if provided. I.e. if contemporary section is provided, then the routine should be danced in that section. If you have a second contemporary, then you may dance the second dance in OPEN/ANY STYLE, but not just the OPEN/ANY STYLE section.

STUDENT CHOREOGRAPHY

Should be a dance choreographed by the student with no help from the teacher. Any style is permitted. Please enter OPEN/ANY STYLE section.

SONG AND DANCE

Should contain 50% singing and 50% dancing. NO backing vocals permitted during the singing part of the routine.
